

HUMAN FAMILY – 14 Maya Angelou

(ALICIA) I note the obvious differences
(GABRIEL) in the human family.
(MUJERES) Some of us are serious,
(HOMBRES) some thrive on comedy.

(PAU) Some declare their lives are lived
(MUJERES) as true profundity,
(SEBASTIAN) and others claim they really live
(HOMBRES) the real reality.

(MUJERES) The variety of our skin tones
(TODOS) can confuse,
(TODOS) bemuse,
(TODOS) delight,
(MUJERES) brown and pink and beige and purple,
(KEREN / POLET / VIOLETA) tan and blue and white.

(GABRIEL) I've sailed upon the seven seas
(HOMBRES) and stopped in every land,
(ALICIA) I've seen the wonders of the world
(MUJERES) not yet one common man.

(HOMBRES) I know ten thousand women
(SEBASTIAN) called Jane and Mary Jane,
(VIOLETA) but I've not seen any two
(MATIAS) who really were the same.

(MAU) Mirror twins are different
(KEREN) although their features jibe,
(PAU) and lovers think quite different thoughts
(MUJERES) while lying side by side.

(TODOS) I note the obvious differences
(ALICIA) between each sort and type,
(GABRIEL) but we are more alike, my friends,
(TODOS) than we are unlike.

(MUJERES) We are more alike, my friends,
(HOMBRES) than we are unlike.

(TODOS) We are more alike, my friends,
(TODOS) than we are unlike.
